BLACK COUNTRY WOMEN'S AID

Help us to support victims of abuse in the West Midlands

BCWA has been supporting victims of domestic abuse, rape and exploitation for over 30 years. We help them to escape from living in fear, overcome trauma and rebuild their lives.

Our vital services include:

- Refuge
- Domestic abuse support
- Stalking support
- Rape & sexual violence support
- Homelessness team
- Therapeutic services
- Modern day slavery support
- Women's justice service
- Children's team
- Training for businesses & education.

We receive over 13,000 requests for help every year (90% female, 10% male).

Currently in our refuges we have 61 women, 56 children and new born babies.

We answer day and night and receive over 30 calls an hour.

Please consider supporting BCWA. please see overleaf for ways in which you can help save lives and offer hope.

WE BELIEVE
NOBODY SHOULD HAVE TO LIVE IN
FEAR. WE LISTEN,
WE SUPPORT, WE
CARE AND HOPE THAT YOU DO TOO

Please consider supporting BCWA and bringing a little happiness to those struggling. Knowing others care makes a real difference to their recovery and future.

Please contact our fundraising team on 0121 553 0090 and ask for Deborah, Katie or Liz.

We look forward to meeting you!

Ways you can make a difference

- Choose BCWA as your charity of the year! We'll work in partnership with you, helping to achieve your corporate social responsibility and sharing mutual benefits.
- Join our annual Go Purple Appeal in October.
- Collect toiletries to make up welcome packs for women and children arriving at refuge.
- Run a raffle.
- Buy Easter eggs, Christmas presents, birthday gifts, arts and crafts; every item helps.
- Take part in our exciting new challenge, the firewalk!
- Run your own sponsored event!
- Knit purple hearts.
- Volunteer.
- Donate to our crisis fund which buys essential household items to help families moving out of refuge with nothing turn a house into a home.
- An idea of your own!
